Your Kid

As we approach the mid point in the year, it's important to remind everyone not to compare your child with others and this include siblings. Children's Key Competencies are the most important thing of all. Having children who can hold a conversation, have awesome manners, are organised, flexible, and are great friends is just as important as the reading level they are on. Always look for the good in your children. Tell them how much you appreciate the kind things they do and how hard they are trying. In challenging times, children who have tons of initiative, are resilient and adaptable, and like to have fun, are children we love to have at our school.

Feilding High School Visit (letter of appreciation)

Tēnā koutou katoa,

On behalf of Te Rau Huia and Feilding High School we would like to thank all of you for your eager participation and beautiful smiles during our visit last week. We especially loved your confidence, amazing singing and awesome poi and Mau Rakau skills. We especially liked when you showed us the poi skills you've already learned like the one handed butterfly and were very impressed.

We also would like to give a special thanks to Mr Kleinshmidt for the wonderful use of Te Reo Māori and the delicious Koha that the Kapahaka group really enjoyed. Your students were lovely and couldn't be better behaved. They were bursting with energy and some even wanted to do push ups! Overall we really appreciated the opportunity to join schools and come together with the younger kids. This was a really treasured experience for Te Rau Huia and we hope it was good for all of you guys as well. As for the performances that you showed us, they were really amazing. All of you had an awesome sense of style that made the performance even better, Ka Rawe!

Lamb Fattening Scheme

Our PTA lamb fattening Scheme is underway. Over the weekend, 150 lambs were shorn, tagged, drenched and sent off to farmers around the district. Thanks to Stu Addenbrooke, Adrian Henderson and Muzz Henderson for shearing, our sponsors - Carrfield's Livestock, Totally Vets and to the many others who turned up to tag, drench and help in the wool shed.

Special thanks to all the farmers in the district who have taken lambs for fattening. Your support is really appreciated.

Nga mihi
